

Dear Presenters at ATSC2012,

We, Editing & Publication Committee of Japan Thermal Spray Society, are so pleased to announce that the 3rd Photo Contest (of thermal spray technology) will be held at ATSC 2012 conference. This event is now getting popular more and more in the annual meeting of the Japan Thermal Spray Society. Here, you are very welcome to participate in this event and show the excellent pictures of your thermal spray experiences. Materials, coatings, systems, persons... any pictures which are related to thermal spraying technology are welcome.

A brief information is listed as follows. More detailed information will be uploaded to the Official site of the ATSC2012 conference in the beginning of November.

(1) Date: Nov. 26-27, 2012

(2) Place: Poster Session site

(3) Commendation: Afternoon, Nov. 27, 2012

A popularity vote will be held by the conference participants. Then excellent picture(s) will be selected by Publication Committee of Japan Thermal Spray Society on the basis of the voting results. We would like to offer the authors of the excellent pictures to put picture(s) onto the top cover photos of the Journal of Japan Thermal Spray Society "Yo-sha".

(4) Picture(s):

A4 size or smaller. Format sheet file will be uploaded to the ATSC2012 official site at the beginning of November. Please bring your picture(s) on the format sheet to the Photo Contest site at the Poster Session Site.
